Dedication in Memoriam

We, The class of 1966, dedicate this yearbook to Mr. W. Stuart Jamieson. An automobile accident claimed his life on November 16, 1965, but we shall ever remember his cheerfulness, enthusiastic attitude, and dedication to the task at hand. He was our friend and will ever remain.

Our Administrators Provide Leadership

Mr. Gordon Thompson our loyal Superintendent, is completing his second year at this position. We appreciate his work on behalf of the school and student body.

Student Band Leader

Christine is receiving her pin from Mr. Coughenour.

Is D.A.R. Good Citizen

This year one of our ambitious seniors, Christine Smith, who did an outstanding job as student director of the band was chosen D. A. R. Good Citizen. Her classmates and teachers felt that she had the dependability, truthfullness, leadership, loyalty, service, cooperation, self control, ability to resume responsibility, and patriotism to receive this honor.

Throughout high school she has maintained a high scholastic average besides participating in the National Honor Society, Senior Follies, MUNA Delegation and Summer Homecoming Court.

Music has been one of Christine's high points. For the past seven years she has been in band playing in dance bands, State Solo and Ensemble, stage band and All Star Bands. She has served on the Band Council and is the band's president this year. Throughout the year she has helped in writing and staging performances.

Active in areas outside school, she has worked with Operation Head Start, attended the Olivet Summer Workshop, worked in the Calhoun County Health Lab and served as a Volunteen.

Christine has been chosen as a class leader and has served on many committees, serving as student director of the Junior Play and actress in the Senior Play.

Next year she plans to attend the University of Michigan to study in the field of Medicine.

Summer Homecoming Highlighted by Court

An annual event in Athens is the Summer Homecoming. Each spring, three senior girls are chosen to represent the community on the Homecoming Court. Chosen for their character, poise, talent, personality, and ability were Dawn Stewart, Christine Smith, and Beverly Ackerman. The girls presented a special program at the Athens Community Association dinner. They were rated on the talent which they presented and also as they were chosen by the teachers. Miss Beverly Ackerman, daughter of Mrs. Elsie Ackerman and Mr. William Ackerman was chosen queen and was crowned by reigning queen Carolyn Smith. All three girls had the privilege of participating in the August festivities.

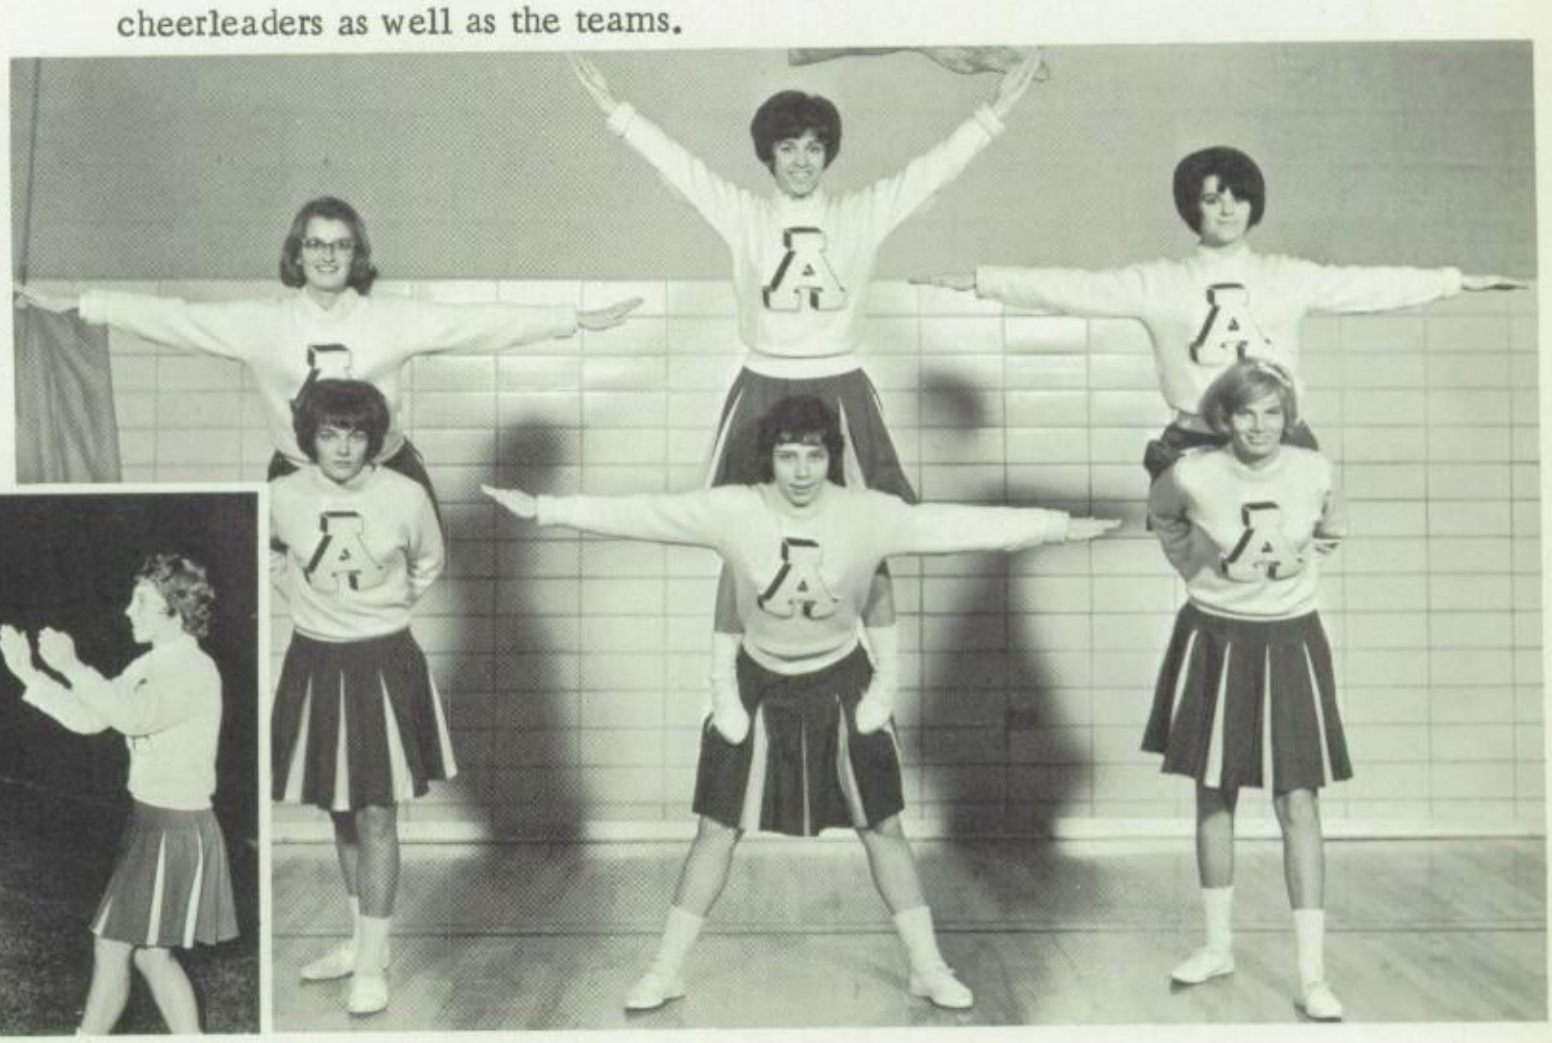
Enthusiasm loomed over the school throughout our sports seasons with the cheerleaders leading the student body. New megaphones provided by the village merchants helped them promote school spirit. It was a very rewarding year for the cheerleaders as well as the teams.



See How They Run!

The Junior Play directed by Mrs. Linda Gras and student directors Yvonne Wesner and Christine Smith, was presented April 9th and 10th, 1965. Everyone in the entire class pitched in to help with the play. The cast enjoyed every minute of hard work put into the play.

Galloping in and out of the four doors of an English Vicarage were an American actor, Corporal Clive Winton, (Tom Moore) now stationed with the Air Force in England; Ida, (Linda Hope) a cockney maid who has seen too many American movies; Miss Skillon, (Joyce Jenkins) an old maid who touches alcohol for the first time; Penelope Toop, (Bev Ackerman) an American actress now married to the Vicar; Reverend Lionel Toop, (Max Roggow) a nervous reverend; the Bishop of Lax, (Ted Wood) a sedate bishop aghast at all the goings on in the stories which are told to him by Ida; the intruder, (Darwin Stewart) an escaped Communist prisoner; Reverend Arthur Humphrey, (Joe Owen) a well-meaning, mixed-up reverend from out of town and Sgt. Towers, (Christopher Smith) a sergeant on the police force with the problem of choosing which of the four men is in clergymen's suits and which is his escaped prisoner.

When Clive and Penelope attempt to spend an evening together for old time's sake, they are abruptly interrupted by the unexpected arrival of the Bishop of Lax, Reverend Humphrey, and the escaped communist prisoner but when Reverend Toop arrives home and Scotland Yard comes in to settle the mix-up everything ends well.

Love Is Too Much Trouble

The curtain rose and the footlights shone when the Athens Senior Class presented "Love is Too Much Trouble", on December 2 and 4. A typical college eating place, the Poison Pot, was the setting of the play. The proprietor, Toasty, (Bev Ackerman), is constantly bothered by the students of Ivy Gates College. The action began when Monica Bates, a visiting high school senior, (Dawn Stewart), and her mother, Mrs. J. Worthington Bates, (Christine Smith), came to visit the Poison Pot on a tour of the campus. Monica wanted to see what college atmosphere was really like. She met Connie Ashton, (Pat Martin), who was working there and Ebb Dunham, (Charlene Goldsmith), and Flo Dunham, (Linda Hope), her sister who are faithful patrons. Pinky Hamilton, (Max Roggow), and Joe Burke, (Darwin Stewart), entered with troubles. They couldn't go to the Prom because they had been restricted by Dr. Pillsy, (Ted Wood), and Miss Ross, (Joyce Jenkins). They had to raise another 200 dollars to pay Cliff Hayward's, (Tom Moore), band. The committee chairman, Shirley Bradford, (Ann Bernloehr), and her devoted helper Sugar Lou, (Sheryl Morey), must devise a way to do it. Just in the nick of time Oggy McClosky, (Joe Owen), the scientific wizzard, came to the rescue with an idea to solve their problems. How the college kids solved their problems and how such an easy solution became so involved made a hilarious comedy. It was under the direction of Mrs. Alice Donley and student director, Yvonne Wesner.

Athenian: The Fruit of Their Efforts

We've broken traditions and started new ones, added new pages, dropped old ones, and in the end, come up with the story of our school with its teachers, students and many moods. The Annual Staff started early to plan and edit the Athenian, then worked diligently to make it the most interesting book of memories ever. The staff spent many long but enjoyable hours compiling, writing, arranging and finishing pages which will be turned time and time again remembering this year.

A little originality calls for brain-storming among section editors.

Making sure everything ran smoothly our two editors kept things well in hand.

This year the junior varsity came through with an 8-win and 9-loss record, to improve over last year's winless season. Breaking a 17 game losing streak, the J. V.'s beat Climax-Scots and went on to prove themselves quite capable. Their pep throughout the season proved to be the winning spirit needed. Athens can be looking for a real exciting season next year with a large portion of the J. V. team moving up to fill varsity positions.

Two J. V. men moved up to the varsity for tournament season. They were Dan McClure (left) and Bob Wesner.

A well rounded team with sprinters, distance men, and men to cover field events, proved the Athens mudders to be strong opponents. With much determination and desire the Indian trackers faced each team.

Veterans with experience proved their ability in a very record shattering season.

Norris,

To a real swell guy that I really got to know this year. It had alot of fun working on the Prom but it wouldn't have been the same if it wouldn't have been able to paint somebody. We've got one more year and I'm sure hope it'll be as much fun as this year has been, Don't get in too much trouble over the summer but have loads of fun.
